

KUCO is owned and operated by the University of Central Oklahoma. As such we support and adhere to the UCO Diversity Statement (see below).

The small KUCO staff is 50% female. Job opening are rare, but when posted go through the university's HR system to make sure candidates are recruited from all minority classes.

KUCO's format and mission is classical music and fine arts programming. We are focused on the end product and don't discriminate on the basis of the products origin.