

KUCO Local Content and Service Report FY 19

KUCO continues as Oklahoma's only locally programmed classical music/fine arts radio service. All daily Monday through Friday, 6:00am to 7:00pm is hosted live and includes local weather, traffic current events in the local world of fine arts including visual and performing arts.

KUCO also has two locally produced program, both of which have won the Oklahoma Governor's Arts Award: Performance Oklahoma, hosted by Kimberly Powell, and airing twice per week, Wednesday evenings and Saturday mornings. This program presents local artists, including the Oklahoma City Philharmonic, Canterbury Voices, Chamber Music in Oklahoma, Armstrong Auditorium and many more. This program includes in depth interviews and fine live recordings.

The second program, Spotlight on the Arts, is hosted by Brad Ferguson and airs each Thursday morning at 10:00am remotely from the Oklahoma City Museum of Art in downtown Oklahoma City. Guests from all the arts, music, drama, visual arts, dance and more come to interview live on the air. Plans are in the works to make this a podcast as well.

KUCO is proud to be the local voice of the arts all across Oklahoma from Oklahoma City to our repeater stations in McAlester and Woodward.
